

Today's newsletter is on our return from Europe, and a few exciting things coming up soon:

1) Hawk Wargames in Europe - SPIEL and Crisis 2013

We've recently returned from our European road trip, taking in two fantastic shows. First off, we headed to Essen, Germany for SPIEL - one of the largest traditional gaming shows in the world. This mammoth four day show proved to be a great opportunity to introduce Dropzone Commander to many new players!

We then headed to Antwerp, Belgium for Crisis, one of Europe's largest dedicated wargaming shows. This packed one day show had a great atmosphere, awesome displays and participation games.

We had a fantastic time at both of these shows and we will certainly be back next year!

2) Invasion 2014 - 2 Day Tournament and Open Weekend

Hawk Wargames will be running a 2 Day Tournament on the 1st and 2nd of February 2014, in Croydon, South London. This is our first 2 Day Tournament, and it is running alongside our Open Weekend. The Tournament costs £25/person, and the Open Weekend is Free to attend, so do bring along friends to watch and look around at the models we'll have on show, along with some unseen things too! To Book into the 2 Day Tournament or to find out more, please visit our site here > And (if you have Facebook), you can join the events page for the Open Day which can be found here >

3) Plastic Battle Boards on Kickstarter

Hawk Wargames has been working with Games & Gears to produce a high quality plastic Battle Board, which is now in the process of being funded on Kickstarter. We have provided the original design work and details for the battle boards (produced by Games and Gears), which we hope will be a great addition to any Dropzone Commander game, and will fit alongside the cityscape and ruinscape building sets. For more information, or to support the project, please visit the Games & Gears Battle Board Kickstarter > There are a limited number of Early Bird Battle Boards still available at only £62 for a 6ft x 4ft board!

4) The Dropzone Commander Previews Advent Calendar

We've been hard at work on a wide range of new miniatures for Dropzone Commander and it's almost time to unveil them. We've decided to release the previews for these unseen designs throughout December, with one image per day all the way up to Christmas eve! The first twelve days will feature 'sneak peeks' and the last will feature full images of our first twelve releases for 2014. Keep an eye out on Facebook and Twitter on December 1st for the first image!
